

2:00 p.m. Amelia Emory
Carrie Fisher, actress and writer
On the Spot (Light)

Carrie looks back on her life and sees the way things truly happened, and what led her to this point.

2:40 p.m. Maria McGlone
Gloria Steinem, journalist and early feminist
A Bunny's Tale

A young woman struggles to write an article as she works to understand the perspectives of women working at a Playboy Club in the 1960s.

3:20 p.m. Mila Fox
Fred Rogers, from Mister Rogers Neighborhood
143

Fred Rogers reflects on his own youth and how he learned to spread the universal love that later made him a childhood icon for so many.

4:00 p.m. Luis Lopez-Leyva
Tommy Wiseau, actor & filmmaker
This is Your Planet

Society fails to understand Tommy, a perplexing and mysterious man, who seems to have come out of nowhere. Thus, he must think of another strategy to keep a pact with his best friend and to follow his aspirations.

4:40 – 4:50 p.m. Intermission & Reception

4:50 p.m. Kevin Cabral
Ben Solo, powerful wielder of the Force, from Star Wars
Balance

Solo and his young apprentice, Shara, uncover a journal surrounded by a dark and looming aura. What lies within the folds of the pages are unexpected lessons and revelations for both the master and the apprentice . . .

5:30 p.m. Ava Peabody
Hillary Clinton, politician
Dear Chelsea

In an attempt to resolve a conflict between them, Hillary writes her daughter Chelsea a letter, revisiting her own college years and her identification of her beliefs.

6:10 p.m. Camille Pivetta
Tinkerbell, from Peter Pan
The Sound of Silence

In an act of desperation, Tinkerbell leaves Neverland to seek help from a real world therapist. Her only obstacle to telling the truth is that she cannot speak.

6:50 p.m. Jade Northover
The Joker, from the Batman movie
The Dark Knight
Chaos

In order to get people to understand his reasons for committing crimes, The Joker is given a psychological evaluation. During the discussion, The Joker shares his life experiences with Dr. Quinn in order to tell his side of the story.

7:30 – 7:40 p.m. Intermission & Reception

7:40 p.m. Orion Bress
Gene Roddenberry, creator of Star Trek
Mr. Roddenberry is....

He's a pilot, LAPD Lieutenant, political activist, philosopher, and TV screenwriter, producer, and creator of Star Trek. In 1991, Roddenberry goes on one last adventure to explore the Final Frontier that is the human condition.

8:20 p.m. Midge Costello
Ms. Frizzle, from The Magic School Bus
Seatbelts Everyone!

Do you hate school? Well, Ms. Frizzle is back and ready to change that.

9:00 p.m. Lydia Hecmanczuk
Kim Possible, superhero
What's the Sitch?

Kim Possible is one of the greatest superheroes of all time . . . but how did she become one in the first place? No matter where or when there is trouble, if you just call her name, she will be there.

9:40 – 10:00 p.m. All Theatre IV Students Question and Answer Session & Reception
Please stay to hear from the Theatre IV students about their experiences developing and performing their One Person Shows!

Congratulations to the Theatre IV Class cast and crew of *Perfect!

The Theatre IV Class came in 2nd (runner up) at the Sectional level of the 2019 Virginia VHSL One Act Play Competition on January 19th at Marshall High School. They competed again at the Regional level on February 2nd, where they gave an impressive performance, amongst strong competition. Two students received acting awards at both the Sectional and Regional levels (Mila Fox and Camille Pivetta).

Thank you to Jim Coates!

Jim Coates' photos of One Person Shows and other Yorktown shows can be found and purchased at:

<http://jhcoates.zenfolio.com/yorktown>

One Person Show Photo Exhibit

April 8-12, 2019

Joe's Place Pizza and Pasta

5555 Lee Highway, Arlington

One Person Show Reception for Students And Families

Week of April 8th (TBD)

Joe's Place Pizza and Pasta

Theatre II One Act Performance

In a Strange Land, by Alan Haehnel

Tues, April 2nd at 7:00pm

Yorktown H.S. Auditorium

The Theatre Arts II Class will perform this one-act play on April 2, 2019, in the Yorktown Auditorium. All Tom wanted to do was take a short-cut through the auditorium so he could sign out for a dental appointment. Halfway across the bare stage, though, he finds himself smack-dab in the middle of a strange platoon fighting The Eighth Great War of the Singletery Alliance. This absurd battlefield comedy keeps the characters and the audience alike wondering what, indeed, is reality. Produced by special arrangement with Playscripts, Inc. (www.playscripts.com). FREE!

Theatre Arts End of Year Potluck and Senior Awards Night

May 30th, 6:00 – 8:30 pm

Special Thanks To . . .

- Bridget Loft, principal, and administrators, teachers, staff and parents for their time and support
- Arlington School Board for their continued support of Yorktown Theatre
- Theatre Arts Parents (TAP) for their constant support
- Activities & Custodial staff for their ongoing facility support and encouragement
- Jim Coates, for photographing every show and coordinating the OPS photo exhibit at Joe's
- Priscilla & Chips Johnson for helping with after school Technical Theatre Club
- Andres Luque from Arlington Cultural Affairs for invaluable technical support
- Carla Lounsbury for costume support and costume room cleanup
- Stephanie Fliakas and Claire Wade for coordinating the receptions between shows
- Mike Zito and Jon Roberts for their constant technical support and assistance
- Returning students for their help and suggestions
- Joe's Place Pizza and Pasta for hosting the OPS Photo Exhibit
- Marianne Schwanke for helping with programs and publicity for the OPS
- . . . and to anyone else we neglected to mention,

Thank you!

Arlington County Arts Education

Arts Education is for every student. Arlington Public Schools are committed to instilling in students a deeper understanding of the process of creation through the Fine and Performing Arts (instrumental and vocal music, visual arts, photography, theatre and technical theatre). We provide students with the highest possible level of training to allow them to create within the context of their discipline.

THE YHS THEATRE ONE PERSON SHOWS

Written, Directed, and Acted by

The Theatre IVs

March 23 | FREE | 2-10PM
In the Black Box

Yorktown High School
Black Box Theatre

March 23, 2019